Dear family and friends,

This past month has gone very quickly. I continued working at Turning Point until the 15th, finished up at Sylvan Learning Center on the 24th, and completed a class on the basics of using a digital camera—I'm hoping to capture some good shots to send home so that you can see what I'm doing and where I've been.

I will be in Chicago the 28th through the 30th for training, then off to France. I will arrive Thursday evening, May 1st.

Here are some praises from this past month:

- ✓ Training of my replacement at Turning Point went well.
- ✓ Able to spend some time with all my family.
- ✓ A friend helped me clean my house.
- ✓ Donations have continued to come in, and I'm at 100% pledged support.

Packed and Ready

The final words of this chapter in my life are coming to a close. Each day I've had to say good-bye to something or someone. Life as it is today will never be the same. But like any good book where the end of the chapter leaves you in suspense, I'm eagerly awaiting to read the next page. I don't need to worry about the rest of my book because I know it will turn out for the best:

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose. For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren (Romans 8:28-29, KJV).

Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ (Philippians 1:6, KJV).

Serving God through you,

Mary

Prayer Requests:

- Safety in traveling to France
- Luggage to arrive at the same time I do
- For sensitivity to the French culture
- An open heart and mind to see what God has for me to learn while I'm in France
